

Castle Howard at Xmas & Scarborough

Sunday 6th - Monday 7th December 2009

Sunday Departing from Bradford at 10.00, we travel across to Castle Howard near Malton. Here you will be able to view the wonderful house dressed resplendently for Christmas. The house will be adorned with the Howard family's own decorations and traditional fresh foliage displays. Friendly guides will be located throughout the house to share tales of Christmas past and present, as visitors move between decorated rooms lit by flickering candles and cosy fires. We depart from here in the early afternoon for the short journey to our hotel on the coast at Scarborough with chance to relax before our evening meal.

Monday After breakfast there will be time to take a look around Scarborough, visit the shops, stroll the promenade or whatever you wish, before our late morning start heading across the Vale of York to the city of York, with its many attractions, and delights. Decked out for Christmas, it makes a superb place to search for those special gifts. We return to Bradford for early evening.

The Hotel

The historic Royal Hotel, always a centre piece of Scarborough, has been fully refurbished by English Rose hotels. The magnificent staircase in the foyer is once more an inspiring sight. All 118 en-suite bedrooms have tea/coffee making facilities, TV, radio, hairdryer, trouser press and direct dial telephone; the majority are non-smoking. The health, leisure and beauty centre provides state-of-the-art facilities. The spectacular Royal Restaurant serves traditional English Cuisine whilst Cafe Bliss offers a more continental-style menu.
