

Murder Mystery Weekend

Friday 5th - Sunday 7th February 2010

Friday Depart Bradford at 09.30am travelling south with a stop at the award winning Denby Pottery visitors centre, with its garden, cook and pottery shops, factory outlet shop and rather nice coffee shop. The afternoon will be in the historic city of Lichfield, famous for its three spired Cathedral, old world charm, plenty of shops, tree lined streets and centre lake. There is the Samuel Johnson Museum and local heritage centre. On then to our magnificent and haunted hotel.

Saturday This evening there will be a murder, but the day starts with a half day visit to the city of Coventry, known for its bombed out and modern cathedrals, renovated and enthralling Motor Museum, excellent shopping, and keep a look out for Lady Godiva and Peeping Tom as you go round! There will be time in the afternoon to take advantage of the hotels leisure and pamper facilities if you desire, (extra charges will apply - booking advised), before you are required to investigate some odd goings on at the hotel that evening. This is an idea venue for a themed Murder Mystery evening. With as much involvement as you wish, it will be time to lose British reserve and ask the awkward questions as the cast unfold a murder and story behind it!

Sunday If you have survived the night before, we have a leisurely start and drive through Staffordshire moorland to Trentham Gardens, with its village shopping and lakeside walks. Return for early evening.

The Hotel

Bosworth Hall is a listed mansion, set in landscaped gardens and private parkland. The hotel's bedrooms have en suite bathrooms, colour TV, hair dryer, telephone, trouser press and tea and coffee making facilities. At the Leisure Club there is a gymnasium, a heated indoor swimming pool, Jacuzzi, sauna, steam room and solarium. If you want to pamper yourself there is a hair and beauty salon offering a host of treatments. Pre booking is recommended and there are additional charges for some facilities.
