

The Windsor Castle Royal Tattoo

Thursday 13th - Friday 14th May 2010

Thursday Depart Bradford 10.00am with journey south with stops as required, and arrival at the hotel mid afternoon. With time to change, the plan is to go early to Windsor Castle as the Tattoo runs alongside the Royal Windsor Horse Show, and so there will be chance to see some top class show jumping, dressage, and equestrian displays before the evening Tattoo show. The Tattoo takes place in the private grounds of Windsor Castle, is narrated, and has military displays and music, and has seen members of the Royal Family in regular attendance. Seating is covered

Friday We return to Windsor for the day to allow you to do as you please. Suggestions of places to visit include Windsor Castle, Windsor Great Park, Saville Gardens, Eton, Runnymede, Legoland.... (Admissions not included) We will depart at 3.00pm for the journey home. Back for mid evening.

The Windsor Castle Royal Tattoo is a celebration of today's forces through music and action in a packed programme of international and British military acts, massed bands, pipes and drums, modern military re-enactments and a fantastic finale. It will tell a story of modern life in each of the services and large screens will show footage from each of the services in action in war zones. This will be interspersed with the ceremonial acts you will know and love including the Household Cavalry Musical Ride and the Musical Drive of the King's Troop Royal Horse Artillery. The Tattoo is a not-for-profit event, with all money raised going to the Royal British Legion.
