

Galway & the Connemara Coast

Monday 24th - Friday 28th May 2010

Monday Depart Bradford 06.00 with a journey to Holyhead to catch the morning HSS sailing to Dun Laoghaire, and travel across Eire to the vibrant city of Galway.

Tuesday Our exploration of the beautiful Connemara region starts with a journey along the shoreline of Galway Bay to the village of Spiddal, and then Clifden with a call at the Heritage Centre and Dan O'Hara's Cottage where as well as the wonderful views we can learn more of the myths and legends. Final call will be at Kylemore Abbey and Gardens one of Irelands most popular attractions.

Wednesday After a hearty breakfast we head for Leeane and a sail on Irelands only fjord. Killary Fjord is 9 miles long surrounded by fine scenery and the waters are always calm. The afternoon will be at leisure in Galway.

Thursday Today we enjoy a boat trip from Galway to the Aran Islands, with the opportunity to marvel at the many antiquities that survive from early Christian times. The Heritage Centre will take you back 2,000 years introducing the landscape, culture and traditions of these Atlantic Isles.

Friday An early start to catch a lunch time crossing back to Holyhead. Back for early evening.

The Hotel

The Jury's Inn is perfectly located in the centre of Galway city right beside the famous Quay Street in the heart of the Latin Quarter with a host of bars and restaurants on its doorstep. The hotel overlooks the historic Spanish Arch and Galway Bay and is within short walking distance of the city's shopping district. It has a restaurant, bar and coffee shop. All rooms include en-suite bathrooms, hairdryer, tea and coffee making facilities and TV with satellite channels.
