

Llandudno & The Welsh Highland Railway

Friday 25th - Monday 28th June 2010

Friday Depart Bradford 09.30am with a stop en route to the delightful city of Chester, situated on the banks of the River Dee, with city walls, elegant Cathedral, and excellent selection of quality shops. Onward to our resort hotel.

Saturday With views of Conwy Bay we travel to the castled market town of Caernarfon to take a return journey on the newly extended Welsh Highland Railway, with aspects of Snowdonia not seen from this angle since the 1920 's when the original line closed. We have time in the town before return to Llandudno.

Sunday A day of scenic delight with a journey down the Conwy Valley and Gwdyr Forest Park then on to Harlech, dominated by its 13th century castle. (Admission not included). Continue further down the coast to Barmouth, situated at the mouth of River Mawddach, with a welcoming beach, tremendous views and pleasant walks. We complete the circular tour returning via Trawsfynydd.

Monday Late morning departure to allow time to have a stroll around Llandudno, then travelling via Betws-y-Coed and the historic A5 route to Llangollen, with time for a browse before we head for home. Back mid evening.
