

Great Gardens of Cornwall

Monday 12th - Friday 16th July 2010

Monday Depart Bradford 08.00, and travel south to Newquay with stops en route as required.

Tuesday Today we visit the Eden Project. Come and discover plants of the world in the huge 'Biodomes' and see how things are developing. Afternoon in resort.

Wednesday Morning visit to the Lost Gardens of Heligan, a place that went to sleep during WWI, but has now been restored to magnificence. Now with over 200 acres come and see what has been achieved with the flora and fauna. There will be some time in the afternoon to relax by the sea at the nearby pretty fishing village of Mevagissy.

Thursday We begin the day at the Trevarno Estate Gardens a plantsmans paradise featuring one of Cornwall's most extensive collections of trees shrubs and exotic plants, as well as being home to the National Museum of Gardening. A visit will be made to the resort of St Ives before we return to the hotel.

Friday Journey home with stops en route as required with a planned lunchtime break at the Evesham Garden centre. Back for mid evening.

The Hotel

Situated at the Southern end of the world-famous surfing venue Fistral Beach, the Esplanade Hotel benefits from astounding Atlantic views which are shared by the restaurant, lounge areas and many of the bedrooms. The beach itself is a short stroll out of the front doors. All bedrooms are en-suite and attractively furnished. There are tea and coffee making facilities, direct-dial telephones with a baby-listening service and of course satellite television. The Esplanade has bars and restaurants, indoor and outdoor pools, Jacuzzi, sauna, solarium, children's play area, table tennis table and live entertainment.
