

Clarence House, The Tower and the Ceremony of the Keys

Tuesday 17th - Thursday 19th August 2010

Tuesday Depart Bradford 09.00am with stops en route as required to arrive in London early afternoon. That evening we walk the short distance from our hotel to the Tower of London see the "age old" ceremony of Locking the Tower up for the night. We start at 8.30pm with a Yeoman Warder guiding us through the ancient fortress, finishing at 10.05pm with the unique Ceremony of the Keys.

Wednesday This morning includes admission to the Tower of London so you can return to discover for yourselves the Crown Jewels and other attractions within. The rest of the day is your own.

Thursday To complete this tour of great British institutions, this morning we visit Clarence House which stands beside St James Palace, and is now the Prince of Wales official London Residence, formerly being the home of the late Queen Mother. Depart London 3.00pm Back for mid evening.
