

Swansea Bay & Tenby

Friday 20th - Monday 23rd August 2010

Friday Departing from Bradford at 09.00 we will travel south with a stop en route, before a lunchtime stop in the picturesque cathedral city of Worcester. From here we continue to the hotel

Saturday Our morning will be in Swansea to allow you to visit the Maritime Quarter with its museums and other attractions, then onto the Victorian seaside resort of The Mumbles, situated on Swansea Bay with a lighthouse, castle and pier.

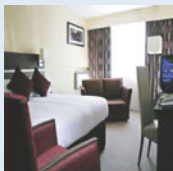

Sunday This morning we will pay a visit to the National Botanic Garden of Wales, a 568-acre Garden dedicated to research and conservation with its centrepiece, the Great Glasshouse (included). The afternoon will be spent in the lovely resort of Tenby with its pastel coloured houses and ancient walls.

Monday Time to depart for home, but not before enjoying a lunchtime stop in the cathedral city of Gloucester before continuing the journey back to arrive back at the Bradford area for early evening.

The Hotel

Three miles from Swansea city centre, the Ramada Swansea hotel is set in landscaped grounds. It has a restaurant, bar and coffee shop as well as a Sebastian Coe Health and Leisure club with swimming pool, sauna, and work out facilities. Some of the contemporary or traditional rooms come with views over the landscaped grounds and lake and all include en-suite bathrooms, hair-dryer, tea and coffee making facilities, flat screen TV with movies on demand and high speed internet access.

Hotel: Ramada Jarvis Swansea, Phoenix way, Swansea, SA7 9EG West Glamorgan Tel 0844 815 9081

This 4 day Tour Includes

- ☞ Free time to explore Swansea, Mumbles and Tenby
- ☞ A visit to the National Botanic Garden of Wales.
- ☞ 3 nights dinner, bed & full breakfast

Prices

Per person in twin/double	£195.00
Per person in single (limited)	£195.00
Insurance	£18.85

Depart code B