

Exeter & The Devonshire Coast

Friday 10th - Monday 13th September 2010

Friday Departing from Bradford at 09.00am we will travel southwards with a stop en route, then carry on to the historic riverside town of Tewkesbury for a lunchtime break. From here we continue to our hotel to settle in before dinner.

Saturday Today you will have the full day in Exeter to visit its many interesting attractions including the shops, the gardens and including a visit to the majestic Gothic style Cathedral. (admission included)

Sunday This morning we will enjoy a run down to Exmouth, where we will join a Jurassic Coastal Cruise, during which you can relax for a couple of hours, take in the stunning scenery and and listen to the fascinating commentary about the geology, wildlife and towns (included) then onto the historic Regency resort of Sidmouth, for the afternoon. Nestling under majestic red cliffs, it boasts over 500 listed buildings.

Monday A morning visit today to the historic town Glastonbury with its ruined abbey and iconic Tor. We return home for mid evening.
