

Blenheim Palace and Waddesdon Manor Dressed for Christmas

Thursday 17th - Saturday 19th November 2011

Thursday Departing Bradford at 09.00 we travel south, with stops en route, to Stow on the Wold, a picturesque market town set in the Cotswolds. From here we travel onto our hotel in Abingdon.

Friday Today we travel to Blenheim Place, home of the Dukes of Marlborough and birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill. Undoubtedly one of the finest stately homes in England, it will be spectacularly decorated for Christmas, there should also be a craft fair giving an opportunity to stock up on presents and stocking fillers.

Saturday Today we visit Waddesdon Manor, built in the style of a chateau by Baron Rothschild and superb furnished and adorned with Dutch Masters. Waddesdon will be dressed for Christmas setting off the already spectacular surroundings. From here we travel home, with a stop en route, arriving back in Bradford for mid evening.
