

Llandudno

Friday 1st - Monday 4th June 2012

Friday Departing Bradford at 9.30 we travel to Chester, where you will have time to explore this historic city, and its many attractions. From here we travel onto our hotel.

Saturday We travel to Porthmadog for a trip on the Welsh Highland Railway, which will enable you to enjoy the spectacular views. You will also have a chance to explore the harbour town of Porthmadog itself, which is situated on the Glaslyn estuary.

Sunday Today we visit Betws-y-Coed, one of the most beautiful towns in Wales where you may wish to visit the wide range of shops, or take one of the scenic walks. We travel back to Llandudno, arriving at lunchtime to enable you to spend the afternoon enjoy the many attractions of the resort.

Monday We set off home, first visiting St Asaph, then travel via the spectacular Horseshoe Pass to Llangollen, which nestles in the Dee valley. Here you may enjoy the shops or the canal side walks, before we travel back to Bradford arriving early evening
