

Cheshire Delights

Friday 27th July - Sunday 29th July 2012

Friday Departing Bradford at 9.30 we travel to the picturesque town of Knutsford where you will have a chance to explore the delights of the town. From here we travel to Manchester Airport for the Concorde tour, where you will have the chance to visit the cockpit and cabin of G-BOAC. Here you will be able to appreciate the beauty, power and luxury of this pioneering aircraft. From here we travel to the hotel.

Saturday We travel to nearby Nantwich where you will have a chance to look around this attractive market town, before we visit the Anderton Boat Lift. You will be able to experience the 50 foot lift between the River Weaver and the Trent and Mersey Canal, as well as take a boat trip. There is also an exhibition that details the history and workings of the lift.

Sunday We travel to the historic city of Chester, where you will be free to explore the many attractions, including the Cathedral, City Walls and the attractive colonnaded shops. From here we travel home arriving in Bradford mid evening.
