

The Rat Pack

Tuesday 27th - Wednesday

28th October 2009

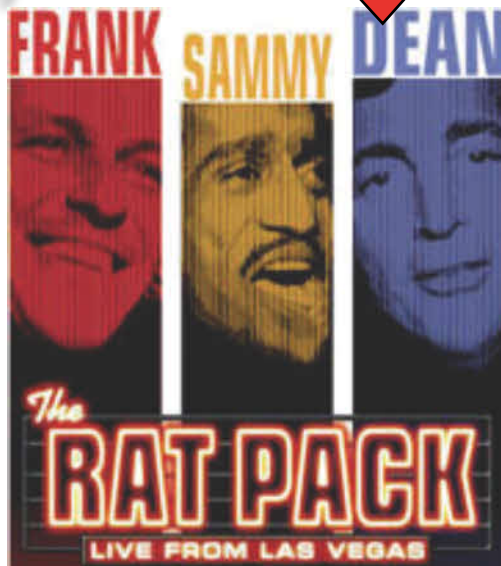

Tuesday - Departing from Bradford at 09.00 am, we travel south with stops en route as required. Reaching our centrally located London hotel for mid afternoon. There will be plenty of time to settle in before making our way to the evenings performance of 'The Rat Pack'. This show has taken its inspiration from the glitzy, glamorous Las Vegas scene of the 1950's and early 1960's, and brings together the three most famous members of The Rat Pack - Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr and Dean Martin, with some of the most memorable songs such as 'Mr Bojangles', 'That's Amore', 'Fly Me To The Moon', 'New York New York' and 'My Way'. It will be a evening of banter and music not to be missed at the Adelphi Theatre on the Strand where we have seats in the stalls. (Please note there will be no coach transfer to / from the hotel to the theatre, as it is only 20 minutes away on foot)

Wednesday - Most of the day will be your own, so there will be plenty of time to visit many of the attraction of the capital. You might want to take in a museum or an art gallery, take a tour on one of the sight seeing buses or a flight on the London Eye, visit one of the famous Highlights or simply indulge in a little 'Retail Therapy'. The choice will be yours until 3.00pm when it will time for us to depart for home. We return home for mid evening
